

Summary of war crimes by Burma Army during offensive in central Shan State since Oct 6, 2015

Shelling/bombing of civilian targets

Date	Type of attack	Targeted civilian area
Oct 26, 2015	Shelling, causing civilian injury	Wan Mwe Taw village, Waeng Kao tract, Mong Nawng township
Oct 28, 2015	Shelling, causing civilian injury	Wan Hai village (residential area), Ke See township
Nov 9, 2015	Shelling causing damage to civilian houses	Mong Nawng town (est. 6,000 population)
Nov 10, 2015	Shelling and aerial bombing causing civilian injury and damage to civilian houses and school	Mong Nawng town (est. 6,000 population)
Nov 10, 2015	Shelling and aerial bombing causing damage to civilian houses	Wan Saw village, Mong Hsu township (where over 1,500 displaced villagers were sheltering)
Nov 12, 2015	Shelling causing damage to civilian houses	Mong Nawng town (est. 6,000 population)

Other abuses against civilians by Burma Army troops

Date	Villagers	Type of abuse	Location
Oct 26, 2015	a 53-yr-old man	Shot and injured by Burma Army troops while fleeing shelling	Wan Koong Nim, Hai Pa tract, Mong Hsu township
Nov 5, 2015	a 32-yr-old woman	Gang-raped by Burma Army troops	(village name withheld) Ke See township
Nov 8, 2015	a 55-yr-old woman and a 15-yr-old boy	Shot and injured by Burma Army troops while returning from farm	Nr. Wan Hoong Kham, Waeng Kao tract, Mong Nawng township
Nov 22, 2015	17 villagers now missing, suspected injured or killed	Shot at by Burma Army troops while harvesting rice	Nr Mong Ark, Mong Hsu township

Estimated number of internally displaced persons (IDPs) resulting from current offensive in central Shan State (November 23, 2015)

No.	Location of IDPs	No. of IDPs
1	Mong Hsu town	900
2	Lai Kha town	690
3	Mong Nawng town	70
4	Hai Pa, Mong Hsu township	1,528
5	Wan Wa, Ke See township	1,025
6	Keng Lern, Ke See township	1,000+

7	Pang Law, Ke See township	1,000
8	Kum Pang, Ke See township	800
9	Taunggyi town	161
10	Lashio town	92
11	Staying with relatives in different locations, and in other hiding places	Est. 3,000
	Total	10,266

Note: IDP numbers fluctuate daily, as villagers try and return to check on their homes and tend their farms when they hear there is a lull in the fighting